Introduction

This book brings together for the first time all the known Catholic baptismal records in the St. Louis area from the time of the city's founding to 1840. They are from the three oldest churches:

St. Louis, King of France (The Old Cathedral) in the city,
St. Ferdinand de Florissant, to the north,
St. Mary and Joseph in Carondelet, to the south.

With the exception of one nine-year period, they were all indexed by Oscar Collet in the mid-1800's. The St. Ferdinand records were copied from the microfilm at the Missouri Historical Society, Jefferson Memorial, St. Louis; the others from a typescript of Collet's index made for the Missouri Historical Society by Francis P. Douglas in 1918 and from a microfilm, also the property of MHS.

The index includes most of the useful informationfound in the record, but godparents' names, which are shown in the complete record, may prove useful, too.

This book is divided into four sections: two previously published, two new. A typical baptismal recond might read as follows:

"In the year one thousand eight hundred and six, on the second day of March, I have baptized Brigitte, born the 27th of October last year of the legitimate marriage of Jean Bte. Marly and Felicite SansSouci. The godfather and godmother are Francois Duchouquet and Celeste DeLisle, the godfather has signed with me.

(signed) F. Maxwell, Curé
F'cois Duchouquet"

Notes on St. Ferdinand, which follows: this index was not transcribed by Douglas, and by the time the transcription was made, the only source was a very old microfilm. As a result it was not always possible to get an accurate reading. The dates shown are those of baptism, with death dates added from the burial records.

Researchers in the north St. Louis county area may find records of some of the St. Ferdinand people at the old St. Charles Borromeo church, in St. Charles County, as well as in the Old Cathedral in St. Louis.

ST. FERDINAND de FLORISSANT

Note: the initials SL following a name indicate that this couple also had a child or children baptized in St. Louis. Date shown is that of baptism.
